What you understand and agree to when you sign this application

In this application, “you”, “your”, and “owner” mean the beneficial owner of the contract. For non-registered contracts there can be more than one beneficial owner. “Sun Life”, “we”, “us” and “our” mean Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

Sign the Acknowledgement/authorization section of this application to confirm you understand the following:

Beneficiary designation (Nominee non-registered contracts only)

The following information applies to beneficiary designations made using this application form.

You can appoint a beneficiary(ies). If a Power of attorney (POA) is signing the application on behalf of the owner, they are only permitted to name the owner's estate as beneficiary.

If a beneficiary dies before the death of the last surviving annuitant, that beneficiary's share of the death benefit will be payable to the contingent beneficiary(ies) named for that share, who survive the last surviving annuitant. If there is no contingent beneficiary who has survived that last surviving annuitant, the beneficiary's share is payable to the beneficial owner, or if the beneficial owner is deceased, to the estate of the beneficial owner.

For contracts governed by Quebec legislation, these provisions apply whether or not the shares of beneficiaries of any class are equal or unequal.

In all provinces other than Quebec,

- you can change your beneficiary(ies) without their consent unless you indicate that the designation is irrevocable.
- if you designate minor children as beneficiaries, you should also name a trustee to receive funds on their behalf.

In Quebec,

- if you name your legal spouse (married or civil union) as the beneficiary, this designation will be irrevocable unless you check the "Revocable" box in the Beneficiary designation section.
- if you name someone other than your legal spouse (married or civil union) as the beneficiary, you can change your beneficiary(ies) without their consent unless you indicate that the designation is irrevocable.
- any amount payable to a minor beneficiary will be paid to the parent(s) or legal guardian.

Identity verification, third party determination and politically exposed person declarations

To comply with the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act and for risk management purposes, the identity of non-registered clients must be verified and the existence and involvement of any third parties determined. Complete the Beneficial owner information and identity verification section, Joint beneficial owner, in trust for or spousal registered plan information and identity verification section (if applicable) and the Third party determination, PEP and HIO information section.

For corporate, partnership, estate and trust contracts the Identity verification and third party determination for entity owners (4831-E) form will be required.

Types of third parties include, for example: payor, executor, attorney (power of attorney) or mandatary, collateral assignee / hypothecary creditor.

Politically exposed person (PEP) – a Politically exposed person (PEP) is a person, who is either a Politically exposed foreign person (PEFP) or Politically exposed domestic person (PEDP) who holds or has held any of the following positions, or a family member or close associate of that person.

Transaction authorization (TA)

With this transaction authorization you authorize your advisor named on this application to instruct Sun Life on your behalf to process only the following transactions:

- New premium deposits.
- Switches between funds.
- Systematic withdrawal plans (SWP) – Setup and modifications (including amount, frequency and fund changes).
- Recurring (set interval) pre-authorized chequing plans (PAC) – Cancellations or modifications (including amount, frequency, fund changes and suspensions with a restart date within 12 months of the suspension date).
- Redemptions up to a maximum of $50,000 gross with the proceeds delivered to your address currently on file or banking information currently on file. Redemptions over $50,000 require a Client signature and a signature guarantee.

Note: Keep a record of all instructions you give to your advisor and check your confirmation statements to ensure the transactions match your instructions. You may revoke this TA by providing written notice to Sun Life. The TA will end if Sun Life receives notice of your death, written notice or evidence of your mental incapacity or bankruptcy, a change in your advisor of record on your contract, notice of the bankruptcy of your advisor or a new TA. Sun Life may refuse to accept or process transactions under this TA. This TA does not apply to contracts with an irrevocable beneficiary. Contact your advisor if you have any questions.

ANY AMOUNT THAT IS ALLOCATED TO A SEGREGATED FUND IS INVESTED AT THE RISK OF THE CONTRACT OWNER AND MAY INCREASE OR DECREASE IN VALUE.
